

There is No Mistake You are Here Now

And welcome to you all. It is Portia and the Guides, and this week's topic is There is No Mistake You Are Here Now.

This idea we bring forward for you to consider because many of you are – at some level – scratching your heads and saying, “Why am I here now? I feel powerless to make a difference on the earth. The catastrophic events going on now at every level – political, environmental, community, social, civil – all of these things are too much for me. Why am I here now? How can I help the earth? Help life on earth when things are so huge?”

We understand, dear ones, this headset or mindset, so to speak, and yet it is not the truth. There is no mistake you are here on earth right now for its healing time and restoration.

The restoration of the earth plane is happening now, and it is not a snap of the finger. It is not like turning on a light switch that all will be well and mankind will understand its unity, its oneness, its relationship to the God that created it and the God that created all of life on earth. All of life on earth.

So, here we are. You are an ingredient of the goodness, the truth, the love that is necessary for this coming forward of God on earth. When we say God, it is the animating life force that created this realm; brought this realm into being. You are an aspect of this God – this source – on the earth plane in the third dimension. We ask you to remember this, even as you are using your eyes and ears to see and hear all of the reporting going on on the events of the earth plane now. We ask you to see through this masquerade is the way to say it. It is on the stage – all of the evils and the difficulties and turmoil – coming up to play itself out and to be released. It must be revealed into the light in order for it to be released. For humanity to have the consciousness and awareness of it and to then take a stand and say, “No, this is not the true nature of life on earth. This is not the truth of the God that created this realm.” That is your most important reason for being on the earth plane now, is to say “No” to the lies and to declare the truth that you know about life, about God, about love, brotherly love, love for nature, preservation of nature, kindness, gratitude. All of the things that you know in your heart. This is why you are here, in the biggest sense.

We say in the biggest sense because it is your assignment to stand firm, to stand strong and true, holding hands with the God that created this realm, and asking, “What can I do for you? I am you, manifested here on earth. What is your wish, your desire, your fulfillment through me?”

We ask you to ask these questions and to do this work, in quiet, in solitude. Your conversation with the God that created you. This is the biggest reason you are here on earth, right now. There is no mistake you are here, now.

And then there is the aspect of doing the work that your soul, that your spirit, wishes to do in this lifetime. It involves many things, including past life issues that are unresolved that your spirit is asking you to resolve in this lifetime. It includes lessons for you to learn, sometimes pain for you to experience so that you see the wholeness of an issue or an aspect where in a past life you were harmful and damaging to life, so this is now on your plate in this life to become aware of the entire picture, perhaps to apologize to life for your own ignorance in that moment regarding that issue. Then to allow the healing to take place, the awareness, the understanding to come to you, and then your forgiveness of yourself.

These are just a couple of examples of the things that your spirit may be asking you to resolve, to allow in this lifetime, so you and it can continue to evolve, and become lighter and more and more your true nature, according to the nature and design of your original being; an aspect, a ray of light, coming, manifesting, emanating from the God that created this realm.

We ask you in this coming week to contemplate these things and to take your time in private and quiet moments in solitude to ask these questions. And then, we will say to you there will be a great peace within you, even as the world continues to look quite disturbing – and the things that you hear – pushing on you because they are not the truth. But what you will have as you do this work is the quiet peace, a coming home to yourself. Being on the rock, so to speak. That rock that never fails you. That is always the truth. And as you claim this rock, this foundation, you will be able to see more clearly what is truly going on, and then also, to contribute your voice to the truth of being, that which you know to be true.

As you are doing this with your voice – and we do not mean the physical voice, although perhaps sometimes this is the truth – but more importantly, your voice within. It is your vote for God, for life on earth, for earth, for all to be restored to its original design, according to the God that created this realm.

Thank you for doing this, as it is a piece of the healing that is needed on earth now.

Our love and blessings are with you, always. Namaste.

Portia and the Guides

Week of October 17, 2022

Channeled by Susan