

What Good Will You Do in the New Year?

And welcome to you all. It is Portia and the Guides. And our question for you this week is What Good Will You Do in the New Year?

We ask you as you listen to this question to be still and to be open. What good will you do in the coming year? Not just what good you will think, or what prayers you will give to God for blessings on life, all of life on earth. What good will you do? This is love in action.

We are not asking for some grand gestures of goodness, that is not what this question is about. It is about your heart. It is about goodwill and kindness to life on earth, to your fellow man, to animals, to plants, trees, the earth, the sky. All of life. What good will you do in this new year?

For those of you who follow the Christian faith and know the bible, you will recall the statement, "Jesus went about doing good." This is a simple statement. Doing good can be simply smiling to a neighbor as you pass by. Reaching out to a community group to ask how you may be of service. Planting a tree in your yard so that it may prosper the earth and the atmosphere and the environment. Bringing your children together for playtime, just playtime, non-serious, non-task playtime.

We ask you in this early part of the new year to consider the good that you can do. It does not matter, small or large. Every act of goodness ripples out into the earth plane and blesses life. We also will remind you this assists the earth realm at this time of great upheaval and much warring and disturbance. That is mostly what you see in the news media, and it is often the topic of conversation between individuals. Woe for us, the world is falling apart, wringing our hands, we cannot do anything about it. This is a lie. Every good work, every kindness, every energy flowing through you that is God's love for life, this is how you can vote for and contribute to goodness on earth and to the removal of the old patterns of warring and conflict and dissension among mankind and against life.

We know that you, in your studies and in your quests, are asking how can you contribute now? You have been given a great opportunity by having a human life in this timeframe.

What will you be doing for the good? How will you be voting for good and acting with goodness and with love in the coming year?

We ask you to be open to this question. Do not feel that you need to rush into any answers but simply let it flow through you, this idea of what can you do to contribute to the goodness on earth in this new year?

We thank you for your love and for your efforts on behalf of this beautiful, beloved earth realm.

Our love and blessings are with you, always. Namaste.
